

A Question Of Faith #2:
Can you be a Christian
AND a scientist?

Psalm 104

Octobr 12, 2014 Kemptville CRC

"How many are your works, O Lord!..."

- Have you ever been in a group where questioning got shut down? How did it feel?
- How do you tend to respond when a question is put to you that you can't answer?

- Our RUDDER for sharing the faith = 1 Peter 3:15 (worth memorizing!)

*In your hearts set apart Christ as Lord. Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that you have. But do this with gentleness and respect...

- a WORLDVIEW is.....

- The WORLDVIEW of Psalm 104 says, about God's involvement in the world....

- Scientists worth reading about their faith and working as a scientist:
Francis Collins, Deborah Haarsma, John Lennox, Walter Hearn

- are YOU curious about nature, love to explore and wonder, willing to work hard?
Perhaps a career in science is for YOU!!

- Have you had someone tell you faith & science “don't mix”? What reasons did they give?

- Steven Hawking (and the philosophy of Epicurus) teach:

- life is an accident...

-which sounds a lot like the modern theory of...

- (check out N.T. Wright Surprised By Scripture for more details)

- Why bother thinking about worldviews, anyway? Can't we do without them?

- More stuff available on www.pastorkensnotes.com (check out Sept 30, 2013)
